

BRIDGERULE NEWSLETTER

1st Issue.

September/October 2009

Welcome!

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the first issue of the 'Bridgerule Buzz'. Hopefully this Newsletter will provide a better communication of parish events and activities. Of course its success will very much depend on the flow of information passed on by yourselves as representatives of committees etc.

Maybe you are about to organise an event or you have a short interesting article or report you would like to share. Perhaps a birthday or special occasion is coming up and you would like it mentioned then please let me know.

At first the Newsletter will be produced bi-monthly. Therefore the deadline for inclusion in the next issue of 'The Buzz' will be the 20th October. (so anything for inclusion in the Nov/Dec issue must be forwarded by 20th October).

With the help of those on the new Parish Plan Committee we hope that every household in the parish will receive a free copy delivered to them. Extra copies will be available in the Village Stores. A special thank you to Rose our very talented local artist for the front cover and her little 'characters' and to Cliff and Liz Seymour-Smith for their help with the printing of this publication.

I hope you enjoy reading 'The Buzz' and find it interesting and useful. If you think I have omitted something and it would be useful to others please let me know.

Above all I hope that with your help this issue will be the first of many. The Editor.

Great Community Support for Week of Events.

Bridgerule Carnival Week began with the crowning of Tia Jenkin, by Sheila Cholwill, Chairperson of the Carnival Committee. She was attended by Angel

Piercey and Rees Philips. Following the crowning and the official opening of the week of events, cream teas were served and various side-shows began to trade. A new side-show this year was 'volunteers' going into the stocks and having wet sponges thrown at them. This proved very popular and very profitable. In the evening a united service took place at the Methodist Chapel conducted by the Rev. Chris Davidson.

Members of the Parish Church held the most popular yet Wine and Wisdom with nineteen teams taking part. The eventual winners were Mrs Vanstone and her team.

Tuesday night saw the Fun Dog Show, which due to inclement weather, had to be held in the hall. Nevertheless it proved very popular and was very efficiently run by Julie and her son Adam from Breezlyn Dog Kennels.

Back by popular demand on the Wednesday was the Ramble. Again heavy rain during the day, but over 70 made their way to Tackbear and on to East Titson in readiness for a tractor and trailer ride back.

Thursday was Skittle night. 18 teams competed, the most for several years. Eventual winners being Sheila's Wheels.

Friday saw the ever popular Bingo Night organised by the Football Club.

Saturday, Carnival Day, saw the tableaux, fancy dress etc form at Littlebridge. This was by kind permission of Bill and Margaret Eastcott due to the usual venue being unavailable. Holsworthy Town Band lead the procession and were greeted in the village by a large appreciative crowd. A disco completed the very successful week.

The Carnival Committee thank most sincerely everyone who helped in anyway and to everyone who supported the events. Donations to local organisations will be made shortly and reported on in the next issue of The Buzz.
